3RD GRADE PARENT NIGHT

Please join us on Tuesday, November 18th at 5:30 pm for a 3rd Grade Literacy Night in the Media Center! Come hear about how you can help your child ensure that they are successful towards the North Carolina Read to Achieve Law and receive resources that will focus their learning at home and at school.

Goal: The Read to Achieve Law is to ensure that every student read at or above grade level by the end of 3rd grade and continue to progress in reading proficiency so that he or she can read, comprehend, integrate and apply complex texts needs for secondary education and career success.

We can only reach that goal by working together as a parent-teacher-student team at home and at school.

Parents and students will receive:

Question stems that are consistent with the questions they will be asked on the standardized tests and reading level assessments.

How to find a Just-Right book outside of the classroom

Writing resources to ensure they are writing reading responses up to grade level expectations
